HOW TO ACE THE JOB INTERVIEW

Putting yourself best foot forward in a job interview is critical in today's competitive job market. Once job seekers land the interview, they will need to position themselves as the most logical choice. Preparation is the key whether in-person or virtual. Participants will learn how to set themselves apart from the dozens of people competing for the same position.

JOB INTERVIEWING: The ten most common asked questions & tips on how to answer them

This workshop will help participants prepare for their next job interview. The most commonly asked interview questions will be discussed and job seekers will have an opportunity to prepare answers. Tips will be provided to help attendees learn what the interviewer is really asking.

BEHAVIORAL INTERVIEWING SKILLS

What is a behavioral interview? Employers may no longer ask candidates: What are your strengths and weaknesses? In many industries, employers are now conducting behavioral based interviews to discover how a candidate may perform in a specific work-related situation. This workshop will cover various types of behavioral interview questions and interviewing role-playing activities.
